Opening Comments

Worthy Brothers, All:

The second half of the fraternal year is upon us. It's time to roll up our sleeves and set our eyes on the work that lingers in the shadows vital toward achieving our set goals. If you paid attention at the State Meeting, you know what is expected of us and what tools and help is available at all levels. As long as you continue to discharge your responsibilities with the same dedication and commitment displayed during the first half of the fraternal year, you will culminate your term with shining colors..

As you review the activities calendar for the next two months, you'll note that many activities and reporting deadlines await us at every turn. Take time to review the calendar and this newsletter closely and pay attention to the various e-mail announcements to ensure that you do not miss anything. Yes, it will take some valuable time as you do so; however, in the long-run it will save you a lot of frustration in not having to play catch-up and pesky reminders from me.

Always remember to give your lovely spouse/significant other a big hug and thank her for standing by you as you pursue the work our founder chartered for us.

Pope John Paul II Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, once you called the first disciples in order to make them fishers of men. Continue to let resound today Your sweet invitation: "Come and follow me." Grant to young men and young women the grace of responding promptly to Your voice. Sustain our bishops, priests and consecrated souls in their apostolic work. Give perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are fulfilling an ideal of a life of total consecration to Your service. Enkindle in our communities a missionary zeal. Send Lord, workers into Your fields and do not let mankind be lost because of a lack of pastors, missionaries and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Model of Vocations, help us say "Yes to the Lord Who calls us to collaborate in the Divine Design of Salvation."

Amen

Free Throw Competition Dates

The District #11 Competition will be on 19 February 2012 at Sealston Elementary School starting at 2:00 PM.

The State Free Throw Competition is scheduled for 25 February 2012 at St. Gertrude High School, Richmond, VA with registration for participants starting at 8:30 AM, and ending at 9:15 AM. Tell participants that if they are late, they will NOT be able to participate. Make sure that the Council Number is on the score sheets for all participants. Participants must be accompanied by a guardian and be in possession of an ID card. Please contact our District Coordinator Brother John W. Curtis at 540-809-1486; john.curtis1232@verizon.net if you have any questions.

Important District #11 Meeting

As previously announced by separate e-mail, we will conduct a District #11 Meeting following the working of the Second Degree at Council #4034 on Saturday, February 11, 2012. It is imperative that Grand Knights and District Nominators (Primary and Alternate) attend to review potential candidates and vote on whom District #11 wants to nominate, be it from our or another district. This will be the primary focus of the meeting. We should have all resumes from State council of members seeking State Office or Supreme Convention Delegate positions in good time.

History of our Order – A Short Review

The Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus was founded by an Irish-American Catholic priest, The Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney in New Haven, Connecticut. He gathered a group of men from St. Mary's parish for an organizational meeting on October 2, 1881 and the Order was incorporated under the laws of the U.S. state of Connecticut on March 29, 1882. Though the first councils were all in that state, the Order spread throughout New England and the United States in subsequent years.

The primary motivation for the Order was to be a mutual benefit society. As a parish priest in an immigrant community, McGivney saw what could happen to a family when the breadwinner died, and wanted to provide insurance to care for the widows and orphans left behind. He had to temporarily leave his seminary studies to care for his family when his father died. In the late 19th century, Catholics were regularly excluded from labor unions and other organizations that provided social services. In addition, Catholics were either barred from many of the popular fraternal organizations, or, as in the case of Freemasonry, forbidden from joining by the Catholic Church itself. McGivney wished to provide them an alternative. He also believed that Catholicism and fraternalism were not incompatible and wished to found a society that would encourage men to be proud of their American-Catholic heritage.

McGivney traveled to Boston to examine the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters and to Brooklyn to learn about the recently established Catholic Benevolent League, both of which offered insurance benefits. He found the latter to be lacking the excitement he thought was needed if his organization were to compete with the secret societies of the day. He expressed an interest in establishing a New Haven Court of the Foresters, but the charter of Massachusetts Foresters prevented them from operating outside their Commonwealth. The committee of St. Mary's parishioners which McGivney had assembled then decided to form a club that was entirely original.

McGivney had originally conceived of the name "Sons of Columbus", but James T. Mullen, who would become the first Supreme Knight, successfully suggested that "Knights of Columbus" would better capture the ritualistic nature of the new organization. The Order was founded 10 years before the 400th anniversary of Columbus' arrival in the New World, and in a time of renewed interest in him. Columbus was a hero to many American Catholics, and the naming him as patron was partly an attempt to bridge the division between the Irish-Catholic founders of the Order and Catholic immigrants of other nationalities living in Connecticut.

Christopher Columbus is the patron and namesake of the Knights.

The Connecticut Catholic ran an editorial in 1878 that illustrated the esteem in which American Catholics held Columbus. "As American Catholics we do not know of anyone who more deserves our grateful remembrance than the great and noble man – the pious, zealous, faithful Catholic, the enterprising navigator, and the large-hearted and generous sailor: Christopher Columbus." The name of Columbus was also partially intended as a mild rebuke to Anglo-Saxon Protestant leaders, who upheld the explorer (a Catholic Genovese Italian working for Catholic Spain) as an American hero, yet simultaneously sought to marginalize recent Catholic immigrants. In taking Columbus as their patron, they were sending the message that not only could Catholics be full members of American society, but were, in fact, instrumental in its foundation.

By the time of the first annual convention in 1884, the Order was prospering. In the five councils throughout Connecticut there were 459 members. Groups from other states were requesting information. The Charter of 1899 included four statements of purpose, including "to promote such social and intellectual intercourse among its members as shall be desirable and proper, and by such lawful means as to them shall seem best." The new charter showed members' desire to grow the organization beyond a simple mutual benefit insurance society.

The original insurance system devised by McGivney gave a deceased Knight's widow a $1,000 death benefit. Each member was assessed $1 upon a death, and when the number of Knights grew beyond 1,000 the assessment decreased according to the rate of increase. Each member, regardless of age, was assessed equally. As a result, younger, healthier members could expect to pay more over the course of their lifetimes than those men who joined when they were older. There was also a Sick Benefit Deposit for members who fell ill and could not work. Each sick Knight was entitled to draw up to $5 a week for 13 weeks (roughly equivalent to $125.75 in 2009 dollars). If he remained sick after that, the council to which he belonged regulated the sum of money given to him.

Around 1912 it was claimed that fourth degree Knights had to swear an oath to exterminate Freemasons and Protestants. Despite the fact that it was denied, and the real oath published, this was read into the congressional record by Thomas S. Butler. In the 1928 Presidential election a million copies were printed to hurt the campaign of the Catholic Democratic candidate Al Smith.

Today there are more than 15,000 councils around the world, and the Knights of Columbus is a multi-billion dollar non-profit charitable organization. Knights distribute Tootsie Rolls to raise funds to fight developmental disabilities, volunteer for the Special Olympics and other charitable organizations, erect pro-life billboards and "Keep Christ in Christmas" signs, conduct blood drives and raise funds for disaster victims, and parade at patriotic events with their red capes, feathered chapeaux, and ceremonial swords.

In 2010, the cause for McGivney's canonization was before the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. A guild had been formed to promote his cause. On March 15, 2008, Pope Benedict XVI approved a decree recognizing the heroic virtue of Father Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus. The pope's declaration significantly advances the priest's process toward sainthood, and gives the parish priest the distinction of "Venerable Servant of God." If the cause is successful, he will be the first priest born in the United States to be canonized as a Saint.

Council Semi-Annual Audit Report Deadline

Just a friendly reminder that your Semiannual Council Audit Report (Form 1295) is due at Supreme no later than February 15, 2012. If, for any reason, you have not completed this mandatory audit, get your trustees together and do it without delay – PLEASE!

Member Retention and Recruitment – I Need Your Help

Let me try this one once again. I am still looking for two Brother Knights to lend a helping hand to the District Warden and Membership Chairman with our District #11 Recruitment and Retention challenges. You would work hand-in-hand with the Council Membership Teams to actively recruit new members and work toward activating and retaining existing members. We need to intensify our recruitment effort during the coming months in order to meet our assigned goals. As I have told you on so many occasions, Recruitment and Retention is a responsibility each and every Council member must accept. Without your personal involvement success will remain a fleeting target. Please give this your careful and considered thought.

State Bowling Tournament

You should have received a package via e-mail from our Worthy State deputy outlining the details for this year's annual State Bowling Tournament April 14 and 15 at the AMF Shrader Lanes, 8037 Shrader Road, Richmond, VA 23294. Please note that the deadline for acceptance for team, single, and double/mixed double applications is March 17, 2012. Each Council must fill in a registration sheet for each team submitted. As in the past, teams, singles, and doubles will have an option to pick a morning 9 am or afternoon 1 pm start time.

Assembly #1613 Business Meeting Host Councils

To preclude confusion and to ensure that refreshments are served following our Assembly Business Meetings, following is a listing of Councils scheduled to host the meetings on the dates shown for the remainder of this fraternal year.

Date	Host Council
15 Feb 2012	Bishop Keating Council #12434

21 Mar 2012 St. Jude Council #13599 - Renewal of Obligations; District Master & other VIP's attending
 18 Apr 2012 Holy Trinity Council #7812
 16 May 2012 Fredericksburg Council #4034 - Election of Assembly Officer for 2012-2013
 20 Jun 2012 Battlefield Council #10246

Sweepstakes Made Easy – Participate

During the Mid-Year State Meeting, our Worthy State Deputy made an appeal for all 140 Councils to participate in the baseball sweepstakes. Each council received only a few tickets this time around to make your job easier. In the least, we're looking for 100% participation by councils. To reach that goal, all a council needs to do is to sell at least ONE ticket.

However, here is my challenge to you. Since you received but a small number of tickets, SELL ALL OF THEM in the name of Charity, because that's precisely where the proceeds will go.

I know you can do it and thank you for your efforts in advance.

Proceeds and unsold tickets must be turned in no later than the 10 March State Meeting.

Upcoming Activities

As always, please note the District Deputy and District Warden scheduled visits to your council. Also note the dates of upcoming report submission deadlines.

Arlington Men's Conference

Please Save the Date for the Diocese of Arlington's 3rd annual Men's Conference, to be held at St. Joseph's Parish Hall, Herndon, VA on Saturday, March 3, 2012. The program will be similar to last year's event, with Mass, opportunities for confession, talks by terrific speakers, breakfast, lunch, and time to meet other Catholic men. I am also happy to announce that the Knights of Columbus of Virginia will be co-sponsoring the conference this year, so please share this information with your Council!

Online registration is open now and will continue through February 25, 2012. No registrations will be accepted at the door. For more information, visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/men.

What District #11 Leaders and Grand Knights Are Saying

In order to give you a sampling of what your District #11 Leaders and Brother Grand Knights are doing and thinking about, I am publishing your comments under this heading each month or as needed. To that end, I solicit your inputs and ask that you forward them to me along with a picture of yourself no later than the 25th of each month. If you are particularly proud of an activity you conducted, include that along with a picture to me as well.

From Your District #11 Membership Director

With the Fraternal Year past the midway point it's time to review past recruitment efforts. Membership Committees should meet to take a critical look at their Membership Plan. If one aspect of the Plan is not meeting the intended purpose determine the why and why not. Modify the Plan where necessary and make the Plan a viable tool in the recruiting effort.

With the new calendar year upon us it's time for Brother Knights to renew their membership in the order. Retaining members is critical to the Order's success as is the induction of new members. Retaining current members while building membership through recruitment results in a council that has a strong base of experienced and actively involved Knights.

Retention Chairmen should be working closely with their Financial Secretaries to ensure that those Brother Knights who have not renewed their memberships are contacted either by phone or in person. Their input should be solicited as to why they're not renewing. Let them know that their input is taken seriously. Provide them with the knowledge of the purpose of the Order so they can take the initiative to renew and become active.

Remember, retaining current members is more productive and cost effective than constantly replacing members lost through attrition.

Philippians 2:4

Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Brothers,

One of the things a Grand Knight receives is calls out of nowhere. This past month I had one of those calls. I was in my classroom and got a call from a Colonel Green in Kaiserslautern Germany. He introduced himself as a Past Grand Knight and said he had a man who needed our help. My first thought was how are we supposed to help someone in Germany. He explained the gentleman in need was one of his former Marines, named Matt and he was stuck in Fredericksburg. I said not a problem we will help him. I agreed to meet Matt that afternoon.

When I arrived, Matt was waiting, this is what I learned: Matt was a former Marine sniper who was wounded in Fallujah. He was on Christmas break with a couple of friends from college and they left him in Williamsburg. He called his fiancé and explained the situation; she is the daughter of Col. Greene. Col. Greene called Matt and told him to hold tight the Knights were coming. Col. Greene contacted a Grand Knight in Williamsburg and got Matt a ride to Fredericksburg with a Brother (retired Air Force Major). I picked him up and drove him to Woodbridge where we hooked up with another Knight who got him to Washington DC where he was able to get a train home to Portland.

Matt could not believe that a bunch of Knights would go out of their way to assist him, when he was in a pickle. I explained that is what Knights do - we take care of our Brothers. Matt was very grateful for the help and continually thanked me for our help.

I received an email from Col. Green and he said he was most appreciative and stated what a wonderful way it was to introduce his future son-in-law to the Knights. Matt has already told him as soon as he finishes RCIA he plans to become a Knight.

Our council has had an easy month. We had the March for Life on the 23rd and corporate communion on the 29th. Thanks go out to all the Knights that participated in these events. Special thanks go to Joe Vogel for heading up the March for Life for the council and to Tommy Lyons for taking the lead on the Corporate Communion.

We have several events coming up in February, a Valentine's Dinner/Dance on Feb. 11, and our first REAP fundraiser on Feb 19. Please come out for both of these events (more info following).

Fraternally in Christ,

Warren Kimmerly GK

Holy Trinity Council #7812

Brothers All,

2012 is here and the time is moving fast. Holy trinity Council held our Council's Free Throw Challenge; more will be written and details of the final will be submitted in the next Talking Points. On February 11, we'll have our annual Valentine's day Event at the Riverside Dinner Theater. There are so many things that we have to do, but we cannot forget why we are Knights.

We are Catholic Gentlemen. We strive to set a positive example of what it means to be a Knight. We believe in the strength of the Family; the teachings of the Church, and the sanctity of life. Like men with like believes, as a group we make a difference. All the good works we do are informed by our four core principles:

Charity - Our Catholic faith teaches us to "Love thy neighbor as thyself." As Knights, we show love for our neighbors by conducting food drives and donating the food pantries, by volunteering at Special Olympics, and by supporting, both spiritually and materially, mothers who choose life for their babies. We recognize that our mission, and our faith in God, compels us to action. There is no better way to experience love and compassion than by helping those in need, a call we answer daily.

Unity – None of us is as good as all of us. As we all know that – together – we can accomplish far more than any of us could individually.

Fraternity – The Venerable Farther Michael J. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus, to provide assistance to the widows and children left behind when the family breadwinner died – often prematurely. In the Knights of Columbus, we watch out for and take care of one another.

Patriotism – As Members of the Knights of we all are patriotic citizens. We are proud of our devotion to God and country, and believe in standing up for both. Whether it's in public or private, the Knights remind the world that Catholics support their nations and are amongst the greatest citizens.

A Council is only as strong as our membership; get involved, make a difference, BE A KNIGHT!

God Bless you all. God, Country, and Family First!

Fraternally,

Rusty Hopp, Grand Knight # 7812

Battlefield Council #10246

Brothers,

I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas.

Battlefield Council is looking forward to our annual Honor the Clergy dinner on January 28. This event is open to the parish so it's a great opportunity to share our message with our fellow parishioners. We will hold our Free Throw contest on January 29 at St. Michael the Archangel High School.

The Council recently helped support St. Michael High School during their annual dinner and auction event. Several Brothers from the Council volunteered to be bartenders. They arrived early to set up and stayed late to clean up. The staff of the school was very appreciative and impressed with the Knights' generosity.

On January 21, we welcomed Brother Jim Walsh as a new 3rd Degree Knight at the Exemplification in Richmond. I expect to accompany at least one Brother to the 3rd Degree on January 28.

Our Council was also well-represented at the March for Life on January 23. Three busses from St. Patrick parish made the trek to DC, and the group was led by Brothers carrying the Battlefield Council banner.

We will be sponsoring a Men's Day of Reflection for the parish on February 11.

Now, onward to Spring!

Fraternally,

David Turley, Grand Knight #10246

St. Jude Council #13599

St. Jude accomplished the following in the month of January 2012:

- Delivered 70 SHARE packages to families and organizations in the Fredericksburg, Ashland, and Richmond, Virginia areas.
- Participated in March for Life on Monday, 23 Jan 2012, in Washington, DC.
- Held a recruitment blitz with the Grand Knight speaking to parishioners at all weekend masses.
- Conducted a successful semi-annual audit.

• Served coffee and donuts to parishioners at the St. Jude Activity Center after the 9:30 AM Mass for two consecutive Sundays.

- Held a Social Meeting with Pizza Hut Pizza on the menu and Field Agent, Mark Primeau, as the featured speaker talking about retirement insurance options.
- Initiated the Substance Abuse Awareness Poster Contest.

Honor America Corps Commander

The Corps activities have been a little sparse these winter months. Our flags are not flown in inclement weather. One of the major reasons for this is the fact that we do not have the facility to spread and dry our flags in an environmentally controlled environment. We have too much invested in these flags to chance the possibility of having them mildew. All who have seen our flags fly on a beautiful sun filled breezy day have to admit that they are awesomely beautiful.

At Religious Freedom Day this year, the HAC flew two flags that existed during the time period when the declaration was signed in Fredericksburg: the official 13 Star U. S. flag (which was approved later that year by Congress on Flag Day, 14 June 1977) and the flag of the Commonwealth of Virginia (1776). The two flags were positioned directly next to the monument and were more visible than prior years where they were more in the background and also hidden behind the trees where they took a beating when the wind blew.

The Honor America Corps continues to need members who are willing to assume a position of leadership in the Corps. Please contact the Commander, Frank Connors for further information. fsconnors@aol.com or 540 786-3177

Special Olympics

The Knights of Columbus will support the Virginia Special Olympics Regional Basketball Tournament at Chancellor High School on Saturday 28 January 2012. Volunteers will man the concession stand, cook 300 hot dogs, present awards, record event times, etc., and receive many hugs in return. This is an annual event that our Order takes great pride in and is thankful for the opportunity. The councils are supported greatly by our Ladies Auxiliary in this endeavor.
